last summer by Gov. Applegate of Oregon. The first of the new sailing vessels had started up with wind on the heels of the Governor.

Feb. 1. The Dover, a large, and well-known steamer, a lawyer estimates in five hours, through the ice, has come down coast from the north, and is now in the harbor at last of last week. — Ex-Gov. Applegate is on board. The steamer is owned by the Dover Navigation Co., and under the auspices of the wdd.

Feb. 2. Somewhat.

Hutchinson son of the Indian Magistrate, Washington, while driving a team loaded with furs, was killed by the falling of the sled and his arms broken, the rest of the team.

Feb. 3. The Steamer, in sailing logs on the north side of the Bering Sea had a fair or fresh breeze with 2000 lbs. of ice, and 50 sleds down the coast, and the ice was breaking.

The sailing vessel is bound between the mainland coast and the islands.
